HAVAS' GAENCY

London, 7th.

Mr. G. J. Goschen, one of the most prominent men of the Liberal party, has just been appointed Ambassador at Constantinople, Vice Sir Austin Layard.

THE SITUATION.

The importance which is attached to the Bolsa peace movement by the organs of both political parties is an oblique recognition of the unparalleled dangers that threaten the country; and the fear of those dangers is the beginning of political wisdom. It is rather a good sign for the country when the agents of our troubles begin to measure consequences: and when men whose renown is a subject of danger to the nation shelter themselves under 'gremios' it has been their policy to despise.

The accumulation of errors that has brought the country to its present terrible situation has so ulcerated the public mind that the discrimination between sedition and patriotism has become too difficult for politicians. The country has reached the very brink of ruin: and the times have come when the greatest purity of intention will not suffice, when it even misleads, and the only safe guide left is experience. Reaction and depression are already evidenced; let us hope to avoid repentance. There is still a goal to be reached; the country halts, the very politicians themselves halt, commerce—poor, impotent, down-trodden, over-taxed commerce—interferes; and we shall say nothing of the means if the results prove successful.

But will these efforts prove successful? That's the question: and are the politicians who have plunged the country into such a critical situation the men to be influenced by the appeals of bankers or the petitions of importers? Rather let us look at the question in its true light, and judge the white flag of commerce the easiest method to retrace steps which every sensible man in the country admitted were overt treason against our institutions.

Ours shall not be the task to offer one word that can be interpreted as party recrimination, or increase one iota the difficulties of the situation. But the time has certainly arrived when, if the causes that have produced these troubles are to be forgotten, at least their tremendous results must be discussed. If the country is to be ruined, at least the people have a right to know by whom, so that the chastisement which must follow will fall on the proper heads.

The greatest error that Argentines could fall into is to suppose that civil war in this Republic, if now forced upon the country, will be of the same stamp, character or limit as the previous civil wars in the Plate. Precedent there will be none for the struggle that impends: and this is not to be ascribed to any increased malignity of party feeling, but rather to the gigantic progress of the nation, which has created within the last few years the enormous interests that are now imperilled. There will be no room for generosity or magnanimity, but the terrific vindication of the country's ruin and the country's wrongs will be the simple extirpation, root and branch, of the vanquished party, whichever it may be.

Are the belligerents prepared for the issue? We think not! and the solemnity of the struggle at last dawns upon those men who must be the first victims, no matter who after shall follow. The whole nation bristles to-day with armed men, not to fight a foreign foe, not to defend the country from invasion, but to set brother against brother, parent against child, relative against relative, and all for what?

Verily there is a humiliation in the question. The interrogatory is an insult to the intellect of the Argentine people. The Chambers must see it. Congress must see it, and the Peace Committee that now starts for Rosario must, like the augurs in Rome, laugh at each other when they consider the object of their mission and the errors which necessitated it. A year ago such a mission would have been considered impossible, absurd, and ridiculous. To-day we accept it as necessity. The threats of going to war, the enlisting of armed men and the general intimidation policy carried on throughout the country have produced the present situation: and the sheen of the spears that bristle throughout the nation have prepared us for battle fields whose names are yet unknown, and for victories that will lead to a new departure in this splendidly unfortunate land.

Are we to be stripped of all the fruits of peace and shorn of every conquest of progress simply because the playing at soldiers has fanned the desire into a perfect passion for a fight? Is the distinctive character of our politicians to become the distinctive character of the nation? Are we to eclipse the Greeks in our discords and convert this magnificent country into a pandemonium of political turpitude that challenges history for a counterpart? If so—then let us drink the last and bitterest drop in the cup of the nation's misery—and confess to the consciousness of meriting such unexampled sorrow.

In every paper printed in this city our readers will have seen the invitation by the Bolsa Committee to the merchants and traders, not only to accompany the Committee to both Government houses, but to shut up their shops and stores in order to lend increased solemnity to the scene. The Rural Society is to meet at its room in Calle Peru, and to associate itself with the Bolsa Committee. The efforts for peace were never more strenuous, and some of the most violent of the party newspapers and those that for the last six months have preached open sedition, now have the good sense to fill their columns with peace news and peace measures. The power of the Press was never invoked in a nobler cause, and the peace which we all sig for, and petition for, and march through the streets for, and shut up our shops and stores for, would be all the more lasting if it secured to us the condign punishment of the men who, by their folly, have all but ruined the country. It must seem to many, as it does to us, that the veil has been very suddenly withdrawn, and that this unanimous burst for peace savours much of unanimous indignation. Things have been pushed too far, and this sudden peace cohesion points to the terrible vengeance the country will exact should war be the sequel. 'Væ Victis'—'Woe to the vanquished'—will be indeed the motto, and the men and the party that lighted the torch at the Argentine funeral pile will be the first to be offered up as sacrifice.

TRIP TO THE CAMP.

No. ~~4~~ 5

The Western Railway runs through a great sheep-farming zone in its route from Mercedes to Chivilcoy, and from the windows of the railway carriage Mr. Thomas Duggan pointed out the estancias of Messrs. O'Connor, Martin, Peter Murray, Thos. Maguire, Mrs. Michael Murray, Michael Kelly, and so many others that the leaves of our notebook became like Thom's Directory. The Connor estancia is one of the oldest, and besides a neat estancia-house, with well-cultivated fields around it, there is a graseria. A large flock of Lincolns and Negrettes, perhaps one of the largest we saw in our travels, showed the attention Mr. Connor pays to high-class-breeding, whilst some peons ploughing up a piece of bad camp, to sow in it grass seeds, reminded me of the great value of the lands through which we now passed. Two millions and a half per league, I was told, would be the lowest price for the most inferior of these camps; yet, I confess it, the price seemed high, as the pasturages, owing to the drought, were extremely bare, and to pay such prices for lands apparently done up from over-stocking did not seem to be very prudent, when fine lands in Rojas, Lincoln and Junin, covered with grass, although of a coarse description, still well suited to cattle, are yet to be had for $200,000 m/c. per league. Every Irish estancia through which we passed has a history of its own. The splendid property of the late Mr. Michael Murray would afford almost subject for romance. We now crossed the great Gorostiaga property, one of the largest estancias in the country; it has lately been somewhat cut down, owing to the inevitable 'testamentaria' partitions, but yet it is a territory. The land seemed to our unpractised eye to be rather coarse and very low, and in wet weather we should say swampy; but the drought even hereabouts was most obvious, and at the Saladas scarcely a drop of water is to be seen.

Suypacha is another great Irish sheepfarming district: the town is very young and has room to grow. Mr James Casey pointed out to us the church built by the Irish sheepfarmers of the district and now Municipal property—another instance of the lack of 'personeria' in our people; and, although the building is devoted to the uses for which it was constructed, still the chapel built by Irishmen would have lost nothing by preserving its distinctive nationality. As a church edifice we certainly never saw a ruder attempt: without steeple, dome, or a cross, the place looked from the railway more like a barn than a temple; and it is to be hoped the Suypachan Municipales will adorn it with a steeple, or some emblem of our faith that points upwards.

We reached Chivilcoy at noon, where, Mr Duggan having telegraphed from Mercedes, a coach and five awaited us. We pushed on without the slightest attempt at an inspection of the town, and must reserve for a future letter a description of this historic agricultural town, as on our return, thanks to the attention of Mr M. Hearne, we had a full opportunity to see the place and pick up some items that may interest the general reader. Chivilcoy, if in former years it was renowned for its wheat and maize, is now equally famous for its coaches—the best, quickest, and cheapest hack coaches in the whole republic are to be found in this place. The Italians monopolize the business, and at the railway station we counted over fifty coaches ready to whip passengers with the celerity of a Bray jaunting-car to any of the surrounding estancias, and for about half the fare charged in Ireland.

Our road lay to Chacabuco, and I shall not say how long it took us to get through the chacras that extend some 7 leagues from the town. We passed the quinta where an Italian was murdered lately, and the wife of a well known city watchmaker is now under arrest for it. The story is too painful for publication: Sin upon sin led to the tragedy. It seems that the Municipality of Chivilcoy is leasing in perpetuity to sheepfarmers Municipal land that the law intended for wheat and maize farms, and much complaint is made about this abuse, although we must admit that at all these Municipal sheepfarms we saw green fields of alfalfa, maize, and much land under cultivation, reminding one of the colonists in Santa Fe, who besides wheat and maize-growing, also have there points of cattle and flocks of sheep. To our mind sheepfarming in this province must yet come to this level; the mere isolated sheep puesto, without a touch of cultivation, is a thing of the past, and the sooner our people awake to this fact the better. Every puesto in the camp, besides turning out 500 lambs a year, increase in the flock, and 400 arr of wool, must turn out its 200 arr. of potatoes, 200 fanegas of maize, and fifty bales of alfalfa. Spades and ploughs are wanted more in the camp of Buenos Ayres than fresh capital.

More anon on this subject.

The Britannia's Mails,

LATEST FROM WEST COAST.

The Lima Municipality intends giving a gold medal to the Commander of the Union, Sr. Villanamcencio.

The Duende, seized by the Chilians in Tocopilla, has been christened the Oroya.

The Lima papers are most indignant owing to the attempt it blowing up the Union with torpedoes. The Peruvians have been unfortunate in their trials. Whilst the Chilians were directing the torpedo boat against the Union, the boat collided with some planks in the harbour and the torpedo exploded.

In the battle (?) of Avanzadas the Peruvians lost 100 men, and Albarracin escaped with his 20 men. One hundred bullocks and the same number of mules were captured.

In the battle among the 'pajonales' of Sama the Chilians only numbered 300 men, whilst the Peruvians were 310 strong. The Chilians charged, sabre in hand, the enemy, and came out victorious. The papers say that the Chilians have here avenged the defeat of their cavalry in the Rimac.

There is no news from Panama—no earthquake and no revolution.

In Ecuador both nature and politics are quiet. A great fire broke out on an altar in the Concepcion Church in Quito; all the precious and sacred ornaments were destroyed. The troops of the Line and the National Guards were called out to put out the flames. The attitude of the population was praiseworthy: Every man, woman and child seized the buckets, but all in vain. The church was doomed. Several soldiers were buried in the ruins, and ten people were burnt to death. All the articles saved from the flames, were duly handed back to the poor priests.

LATEST FROM ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

May 7th.

Under the present circumstances it would hardly be proper for your Correspondent to ignore politics entirely; but I shall do no more, however, than jot down the events of the day as they occur.

The agglomeration of troops in Rosario, although it has not much affected the serenity of the community, has given rise to much conjecture, and has awakened among the people a feeling of inquietude. We have now four regiments of the Line besides the new regiment of artillery, organized here by the gallant Col. Nelson. One of the infantry regiments here, or to arrive, is commanded by a brother of Gen. Roca. There are also two gunboats anchored in port.

Contrary to my expectation, the General did come down from Cordova on Sunday, as you are already aware. Dr. Iriondo was here, and Dr. Rocha arrived from Buenos Ayres on the same day. The latter left again on Wednesday. In the meantime there was nothing talked of but the conferences held by Rosario's distinguished guests and the Gefe Politico and other chiefs of the party here. Nothing, however, has transpired; only the very threatening language held by some of the Roquistas, and by the General himself, inspires a fear that the said conferences did not breathe peace and concord.

One of the regiments was about to embark in the train on Sunday, but was stopped, and marched back to town.

As straws tell which way the wind blows, so rumours and 'on dits' and street-corner talk may indicate the existence of perturbating forces. They speak of the formation of a Corps d'Armee in Rosario; others go so far as to say that San Nicolas is the point decided on; but as this would be a declaration of war against Buenos Ayres, we may give the rumour 'cuarentena.'

Col. Araya arrived, of course, as the phrase goes, to 'conferenciar,' and after a stay of a couple of days returned to Entre Rios, or Buenos Ayres, I don't know which.

The town perfectly quiet; the troops are kept in excellent state of discipline. General Roca reviewed two regiments since his arrival and expressed his satisfaction. I have only two disagreeable incidents to relate: an officer of the picquet was badly wounded the other night by a young man. I cannot say if the affair had any reference to politics. About ninety Indians that Colonel Nelson had in his Artillery Regiment mutinied, but were put down immediately. It is said some half dozen of them escaped. I do not think the experiment of turning Indians into soldiers will succeed. It is impossible to render these wild men of the Pampa amenable to discipline. They will desert or break their hearts. The experiment is a cruel one.

The grand opera company made its debut on Wednesday night in our fine theatre the Olimpo. I fear it will prove too much of a luxury for our Rosarinos. A family cannot listen to the 'Trovatore' or 'Norma' without disbursing to the amount of twenty or twenty five dollars; and most people think it is paying too dear for the whistle.

A highly respectable Spanish association has been formed with the object of creating a fund to assist their destitute countrymen who desire to return to their native land.

Farmers are hard at work harvesting the maize crop, which will turn out very respectable.

A strange phase in politics in this country is the active participation in party warfare that the Rectors of the National Establishments of Education are allowed to take. That they should belong to a political party is of course all right, but that they should be hot partizans is very wrong, and has inevitably a fatal result. The boys' parents belong to the different parties, and when not restrained in the colleges, political sides are taken by them; and if the Rector sides with one of the parties, as it appears he invariably does, the whole establishment becomes disorganized. Our College in Rosario has been brought to the verge of dissolution from the above causes. Its benches and classes are not half filled, and there is an exceedingly bad feeling existing between the Rector and a large number of our best families, who will not send their children to the College. Many have sent their children to National Colleges in other provinces. I do not pretend to say where the fault lies heaviest; but this I do say, that no National Government should allow the Rectors to become active partizans of any political party, no more than it should be permitted to the judges of courts of justice.

We probably owe to this state of things that as a kind of opposition to the National College, an Athenæum has been opened in Rosario, and apparently thoroughly organized, with a directing Committee composed of some of our most talented men headed by Dr. Rueda, known as a clever writer and profound thinker. The law classes are directed by our very best men.

Roman Law—Dr. N G de Solar.
International Law—Dr. N Marin.
Civil Law—Dr. Pedro Rueda,
Commercial Law—Dr. Rodriguez.
Penal Law—Dr. D. Rosas.
Constitutional Law—Dr. Sanchez.
Medical Law—Dr. del Campo.

There are to be classes in Natural History, Physics, Chemistry, Languages, History, Mathematics, Geography, Literature and Philosophy, each with a competent master.

In the Athenæum of Rosario, the first that has been established in the Argentine Republic, founded on the principles of the celebrated Athenæums of Athens, Rome and Lyons, we may hope to see the Professors of the Liberal Arts hold their assemblies and give instruction, the Rhetoricians declaim and the poets rehearse their performances.

The weather is cold and dry; we are experiencing a rather severe drought; the estancieros are putting on long faces, and the farmers as well, as they do not like to sow their grain in the dry soil. A couple of days' rain would be good news to send you. In the meantime, for a novelty, I subscribe myself,

Yours truly,

W. P.

LATEST FROM PARIS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

April 4th.

The decree dissolving the Jesuits, and requiring all convents and monasteries established not according to law to legalize their position, does not create any marked excitement. The fact is, the struggle between the clerical party and the Republicans was for a long time expected. The most singular part of the quarrel is this: the first Napoleon, the restored Bourbons and Louis Philippe, alike reined in the Jesuits, yet the partizans of these three dynasties protest against the Republic applying the very same decrees, only with greater moderation. It is to be presumed that in acting on the advice of the immense majority of the Chamber of Deputies to apply the decrees, the Ministers felt satisfied the sentiment of the nation was with them, not in making any new code, but simply compelling religious orders to submit to the laws of the land, as the privileges and immunities they hitherto enjoyed must henceforth cease, especially under a Constitution whose chief corner-stone is equality. The decrees have not been applied in all their severity: the Ministry could have expelled the Jesuits, instead of which they are allowed to remain as private citizens, but not in associations, since they refuse to submit their statutes for Governmental inspection and decision. Hence, they will not be permitted to teach in a collective capacity for the same reason that no lay schools' professional staff can exist without a licence.

France is the last powerful asylum of Catholicism. What then will likely be the consequences of the decrees? Two facts may be accepted as certain: the government having put its hand to the plough, will not look back, and a juridical resistance on the part of the orders is simply defeat in advance. At the present moment not only have all the orders resolved to make common cause to fight against the decrees, but the church, that is to say, the regular clergy, have by several of the bishops, decided to throw in their lot with them. This is grave. The question is thus reduced to one of simple obedience to the law, and here there can be no two opinions. If an enactment be bad, that is a capital reason for its amendment or repeal; but, while it lives in the Code, it must be respected by order-loving citizens. The Government declares, we cannot accord legal authorization to the Jesuits; we do not expel them as monarchs have frequently done; we 'disperse' them, as did Charles X. in 1828. Respecting the other orders, the Government simply demands that they submit to common law, that regulates all societies, whatever their principle or their end. To revolt against a law which exists since years, and that has not been made to meet present requirements—to proclaim disobedience—to resolve to continue in a state of illegality, so as to compel the authorities to recour to extreme measures—all that's simply insurrection. Neither social order nor public morality could be upheld under these circumstances, and it is not from the Church which preaches love, peace, and justice, that such counsel—after anger has cooled down, is to be definitely expected. Fortunately there are three months' for reflection, and Leon XIII is a Pontiff of tact.

The Press here follows with extraordinary attention the English elections, proof that France desires not to lose the good-will of 'perfide Albion;' it is difficult to divine why journals of different shades, and of the same shade, of thinking, wish for the success of 'Lord' Gladstone, or 'Sir' Disraeli. It seems the latter leans more to Germany, and is held responsible for aiding and abetting the 'chauvinism' in court circles for the Napoleon dynasty and the Westminister Abbey cenotaph to the Prince Imperial. It is on the other hand considered, that if M. Gladstone maintained neutrality in 1870, he has since seen the errors of his way. No journal, however, appears to perceive that when the honor or serious interests of England are involved, the only difference between Liberals and Conservatives consists in the manner of playing the same tune.

It seems strange that an important legal question could have been raised respecting the right of private individuals to contribute and to collect donations for charitable purposes. Yet such has been the case, and the Council of State has ruled, that so long as the object of the charity is honestly served, the authorities have not any grounds to interfere, to claim the collections and officially distribute them, attached to every mayoralty is a Paris Relief Committee; it can claim ten per cent on the gross receipts of all places of amusement, the collections in the churches, and what the Committee may collect from house to house visits periodically. However, public subscriptions were opened of late very frequently, where no doubt could exist, a political and sect purpose was in view—hence the litigation. There is no poor law in France because there is no pauperism, and the very poor are looked after by the volunteers of the Relief Committee: in spite of the law requiring every child to contribute four or six sous per day towards the support of parents on their reaching 65, the French seem to be born with the instinct for saving against rainy days and providing for their advanced years. This economy may sometimes come very near to parsimony, but it is a lesser vice than extravagance. Then again they are never idle: other peoples may work harder in a given time, but the tortoise will overtake the hare. The French do not drink, and wife-beating, as an institution, is unknown. These are the traits that enable them to come up smiling after an invasion, and to subscribe milliards when the Government asks only for millions. The more people can feel they are part and parcel of the sovereignty of the nation, the more certain France will be to remain peaceful, great, glorious and free. Happily, since 1870 a new generation has sprung up to whom Henry V., Louis Philippe II. and Napoleon V. are as mythical as the Shepherd Kings of Egypt. Only religion, not politics, is hereditary.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

To-morrow will be a great and solemn day for the Argentine Republic: The intellect, wealth, common sense and true patriotism of the country will meet to protest in 50,000 tones against a handful of ambitious politicians who would, for their own ends, plunge one of the fairest countries on God's earth into the ruinous abyss of civil war. Let us hope that now, at the eleventh hour, the voice of Peace and Humanity will be listened to. If not, all is lost, including the honour of the country.

There is nothing particular in the amusement way on the cards for to-day, except at the Politeama, where there will probably be a muster of all the little folks in town. At Palermo the usual Tiro review is announced. We cannot help thinking that, at this solemn moment, when there is one loud cry for Peace all over the land, it would be better taste and a graceful concession to public feeling if these Tiro gatherings were suspended till the dread issue now hanging in the balance be decided.

With pleasure we announce to our Catholic readers that the nuns expected from Chile arrive this morning in the Cosmos, and we feel certain they will receive a warm welcome from our countrymen. Ladies wishing to call on them will find their address at the Curia.

The rain has not come yet, but there was sign of it yesterday. The pale cast of thought is making all interested in camp affairs look quite sickly: In fact between politics and the drought, it is a wonder that the head of every responsible man in the country has not turned as grey as a badger's within the last month.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Dr. Nelson, one of the oldest and most respected of the British residents ot this city. The deceased physician had been delicate for many years, and the end has come in his 65th year. His funeral takes place to-day, as per notice.

Lots of fresh political 'canards' were flying about yesterday, but few of them merit mention. The Special Committee of the Senate (one dissenting) have recommended the passing of the fifty million loan for arms, already voted by the Deputies. Our industrious colleague the Industrial pertinently remarks that, while fifty millions are so gleefully voted for bloodshed and ruin, not a dollar can be had to continue the Riachuelo Port Works, the City Improvements, or any other useful thing. Too true, alas!

Deputy Rocha and some others were made the object of a hostile demonstration on Friday when leaving Congress; some 'vauriens' in the crowd began to hoot and jostle the honourable members, but on Deputy Pizarro, of Santa Fe, drawing a full-sized Bull-dog revolver, the patriots 'cleared' like lightning in a great hurry. The Nacion condemns energetically these dastardly demonstrations.

Messrs. Mann & Co. have asked the Municipality permission to erect in the city 50 pillars for advertizement purposes, such as are in use in Europe. At night these pillars will be illuminated and will save the city $6000 mje monthly for gas, by enabling many lamps in their vicinity to be dispensed with.

The latest news from up the river is that the lordly Parana is rising again as rapidly as it well can, but as yet no floods.

For a good, stiff, thrilling novelty commend us to our Uncle Sam. In Paris lately there was immense competition at a book auction for an American work, not for its contents, but owing to its being beautifully bound in gilt—not cloth, don't think it, but in the skin of the author!!

There seems to be a favourable reaction in the public mind about the Printing Press Centenary. On Thursday the receipts at the Politeama were $50,000 mje. A good days work.

Hamburg cigars will soon become even more awfully delicious than usual, as over 1000 tons of beetroot leaves are now annually made to do duty as tobacco by the enterprising manufacturers of the Fatherland. Well, beetroot is quite as like tobacco as cabbage, perhaps more so. Another invention of our German friends is less open to cavil, viz, spun glass wicks for oil lamps; they are said to be a wonderful improvement on the old fashioned and clumsy cotton wicks.

The Tiros intend giving a grand entertainment, to be followed by a review, on the 25th of May inst., in Palermo. The late attempt at review proved a disastrous failure, and nearly led to fatal results. There will be a grand 'carne con cuero' breakfast, to be accompanied with champagne, speeches, etc.

Mr. Herman Cortes, the zarzuela actor, was relieved of $50,000 worth of jewellery the other day by his valet. The fellow did not even wait to say 'vale,' and has not been heard of since.

The National Government has responded to the calling out of the National Guard in Entre Rios by an official note from the Minister of the Interior intimating that it will allow no National Guard work just at present. 'Muy bien.'

We rarely trouble our head about wool in this pot-pourri column, but, for the sake of those whom it may concern, wish to put on record our regret at the fall in wool and sheepskins at London and Bordeaux, as reported by telegram.

Dr. Cortinez, Chief of the National Contaduria, has been appointed National Minister of Finance, Vice Dr Plaza. Dr Cortinez held the Finance portfolio before, some years ago, and held it well.

It appears that the police are at last getting tired, even to the point of mutiny, at the incessant worry and drill to which the 'resistencia' policy has subjected them for so many months past. At San Isidro, some days ago, there was a royal row: The men refused to go through any more drill that day, as they were fairly worn out; an officer struck one of them; then they all drew their swords, and there would have been a wake over the 'oficial' that night but for the timely arrival of other officers. This affair shows how the wind is beginning to blow now.

The family of the Governor of Santa Fe, Dr. Iriondo, has left for that province. Politicians ridiculously attribute political motives to this departure.

We find the following valuable hint to our sugar friend in Tucuman, in a London scientific paper:—

"It has been shown within the last few months that sugar can profitably be produced from sorghum, and as the plant itself is capable of various applications its extensive growth is only a matter of time. It furnishes excellent fodder, and the seed is said to be as good as oats or corn for food for domestic animals. It yields an excellent fibre, and the refuse can be used as a fertiliser. Beyond these results it gives a pure spirit 20 per cent stronger than whisky, from which may be obtained excellent vinegar [Mr. Drummond has distributed some of the seed in England, in the hope that attention may be drawn in the right quarters to the value of this plant."

The best feature about the Tejedor administration has always been its efforts to stop the plundering of the Public Treasury which was formerly so prevalent. Minister Balbin's most recent effort in this laudable direction is the imprisonment of an ex-Juez de Paz till he explains what principle of book-keeping he was taught when at school.

We call attention to Dr Mulcahy's advertizement in another column. This young doctor has opened consulting rooms at No. 320 Calle Maipu.

We see another Tiro performance for the purchase of arms announced for the 12th inst. Calculating all the performances already given for this doubtful purpose, and the prodigious success said to have attended every one of them, we should say that the Tiros ought to have enough cash on hands to supply even the Russian or German army with arms.

There is a deal of printed matter, but very little news, in the Montevidean papers to hand yesterday. The Ferro-Carril has changed editors. The Diario de Comercio is now the liveliest paper down there: it threatens poor Colonel Latorre with Lynch law should he ever turn up in Montevideo again. Our breezy colleague has also discovered another hole in the Lottery accounts to the tune of 102,000 patacons!! An agent from Buenos Ayres is picking up all the rifles and ammunition he can find in Montevideo.

We have papers from Panama to 1st April. The German families in Colombia are leaving that country 'en masse' in consequence of the recent Communistic outrages at Bucaramanga. Mr Schrader, the Consul, only remained, for a time, to wind up the Consulate business. It appears another Kearney has started there, and the State is becoming too hot for respectable folk. Nothing fresh in the way of revolution or earthquake.

The lighter captured by the Vigilante the other night had 600,000 Remington cartridges on board. It is a prodigious comfort for the peaceable portion of the community to learn, on the authority of a morning colleague, that the stock of ammunition in this 'plaza' is extremely short. We most fervently trust it will remain so.

The reports current on Friday of a crisis in the National Cabinet were all pure moonshine.

The result of yesterday's session of the Nat. Chamber of Deputies was looked for with the greatest anxiety, and numbers of the mercantile community delayed their diurnal exodus to unseemly hours with the hope of knowing more than any one else. The debates were 'salty,' and the political manœuvrers exhibited strategy of a high order. The antagonistic parties seemed well balanced, and no Motion showed a greater discrepancy than 4 votes. The ultimate result appears to be that the report of the minority of the Comision de Poderes will be discussed before that of the majority. The sitting was postponed at 6 o'clock p.m. until Monday next.

Notwithstanding the still critical aspect of affairs the gold market commenced steady, but calm at 31.05 for cash, and 5 cents lower for the end of the month. Ready gold soon evinced a sympathy for its distant relative, and the historic bell tolled out an official quotation of 31 for money down, Saturday next, and the end of the month. For June the price fell from 31 to 30.95, at which last figure the only operation for August was effected. A decidedly speculative sale of $10,000, with option to deliver until the end of the year, was also recorded.

Cedulas made a sprightly 'debut' at 85⅜ for cash, but settled down to 85⅛ at the closing hour. For the end of the month this stock opened and closed at 85½.

A renewed animation was noted in Treasury notes, which rose from 75½ to 76⅜ for cash, but dropped from 76 to 76⅛ for the end of the month.

National Bonds of the 1863 emission held their own at 81, 80½ and 81 for cash.

National Bank shares showed a spasmodic vitality, 250 shares having changed hands at 56, 65½ and 66⅜ for the end of the current month.

The important petitions from the commercial body will be presented at 3 o'clock to the President, and at 4 o'clock to the Governor, on Monday next, when an enormous assemblage of representative men is expected to accompany the Committee.

The state of the Bolsa to-day is, indeed, suggestive of the very melancholy position of the country. On a table in the porch lay the petition to the Governments asking for peace: it received signatures every instant, and, as evidence of the unanimous desire of the commerce of Buenos Ayres for peace, it is indeed incontrovertible—yet the affair suggests a state of things which few anticipated. The business of the day was much interrupted by this movement; and it was announced that Monday will be a half holiday, as all town will march with the peace petition to President and Government. The Pagare Committee has also taken action in the matter and invited various gremios to close on Monday.

The payments to-day were trifling, and, in the linguage of the brrraqueros, it was a small light Saturday.

The telegrams from Europe are not favorable. Wool and sheepskins appear to have touched their highest, and prices have given way. The close of the London wool auction showed a sharp drop.

Many telegrams were sent to Europe to-day with news of our political crisis.

In Exchange we hear the Provincial Bank took pretty freely yesterday on Paris at 5.25-27, and on London at 50d.

In produce considerable dullness prevails.

A sale of 1,400 Corrientes hides is reported at reserved rates; and another, of 1,000 B. Ayres hides, also at reserved price.

1,500 B. Ayres kips at 57 rls. fts., is also noted.

We hear of a lot of 500 'pesados de la Provincia' at 63 rls. hard.

Only two vessels are at present on the berth for the United States, one for New York, and one for Boston.

The following charters are reported:—
British vessel Avon, for the Uruguay, to load 150 pipes of tallow, and 10,000 salted hides, to the Channel for orders, at 35s. and 5 per cent.

German vessel Alfredo, to load salted hides in Gualeguaychu, to Falmouth for orders, at 35s. in full.

Italian vessel Giacomo B., to receive bone-ash and bones in San Nicolas at 26s. in full.

The Italian vessel Constante to embark in Gualeguay, ⅔ bone ash, and balance bones, at 20s and 5 p. cent. The last two also call in the Channel for orders.

The latest rumour on Change was that Sanchez, the defaulting clerk of Messrs Ocampo, had been captured here in the city, and was already in the Policia.

It is positively stated the schooner captured by the Vigilante was taken at her moorings in Montevidean waters.

The Provincial Senate duly met to-day, but postponed the discussion of the project to vote fifty millions to the Provincial Government, until its next sitting, on Tuesday.

'Good' gold was done to-day, a mixed parcel of $1,400, at ⅛ per cent.

Exchange on Montevideo difficult to pass at 1⅜ per cent prem.

The following is a list of the Committee of brokers named to supervise the meeting arrangements on Monday:—

At 5 o'clock gold ruled weaker, sellers at 30.95, and the news spread like wildfire that the absconding clerk of Messrs Ocampo's barraca had been caught this afternoon in Calle Piedad.

Monday, owing to the peace movement, will be a half holiday.

The sale after-hours of some Roads and Bridges at 78½, and Nat. Bonds at 81 reported.

At the Plaza Once the following business done:—

Arrived by rail 28 waggons with cargo.

The sales were:—
Cow Hides—250 at 185, 190, 200.

Bran—At $25-26 per qq.
Potatoes—From the country at $3 per ar.

The news from the camp continues unfavorable, and another week has gone by without rain; people in the city know little of the state of things outside, and since last Monday affairs have grown so much worse that we learn from some camp subscribers that it is touch or go with the camp and politicians may take matters more quietly, as if the rain does not come, the Province of Buenos Aires will be ruined and there will be nothing to fight for. All the camps of the near partidos, notwithstanding that the cattle have been removed, are now so bare that the sheep have to be moved out, and the great difficulty is to know where to move them to, since the outside camps are too coarse for sheep and only suited for cattle; spite of all this we hear of 5 flocks just sent out to a new estancia at Rojas, and on another estancia in the same partido where hitherto no sheep have ever been seen there are now ten flocks sent out from the Fortin and San Antonio de Areco. Wired frontier camp at the moment is in great request, and we hear of two alambrados rented for horned cattle at $5m/o per head per month, which seems a high figure, but a mere trifle if it save the cattle.

Our commercial advices from Rosario give the following:—

"Fidelia arrived to load wool for N. York.

"Liberato to load bones for Falmouth.

"Jesson to load hay for Rio Grande.

"766 boxes of dried fruits during the week received from Mendoza and San Juan."

The Montevidean Statistical Department publishes very interesting trade returns for the year 1879, which reflect much credit on that department; we note that the exports show a falling off of 816,197 pats compared with the previous year the figures being—

Export 1878..... 17,492,158
Export 1879..... 16,645,961

Trade with France, United States, Mauritius, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Africa, West Indies and Teneriffe shows increase, whilst there is a great falling off with England, Brazil, Cuba, Belgium, Germany, Argentine Republic, Chile, Peru, Paraguay, Japan, China, and Falkland Islands. The paper merits the attention of merchants.

Messrs Gandolfi & Moss, in their circular for the mail, give the following comparative tables of principal articles of import for month of April this year and last. The figures are most important:—

Our latest Montevideo advices give the following:—

"Mr Franco intends introducing some urgent reforms in the lottery contract with Mr F Vidiella, a step much wanted. These reforms will give the charitable establishments $f.20,000 per year.

"The Government has received a proposal to construct a railroad, which will unite the town of Minas with the banks of the River Plate. The Gefe Politico of that department will be dismissed.

"The waters fell to such an extent in the Montevidean harbour that the saladeros of the Cerro had to suspend loading their produce.

"Last night (8th) four English gunboats steamed towards B. Aires. A Brazilian gunboat left the harbour this morning, steaming Eastwards.

"A fire broke out in the mill belonging to Mr Wm Ponyado, but was soon extinguished.

"Rumors were flying about here yesterday to the effect that the Chilians had been worsted in Tacna, but no foundation.

The Tres Marias loaded in the Cerro per Messrs Cibils & Son 73,940 kilos tasajo; the Marcolita per Rosales & Co. 14,088 kilos tasajo, both vessels load for Brazil."

"Imports continue paralyzed; in general prices keep firm, but importers are not anxious to sell, fearing civil war and a consequent rise in gold. In exports very little doing; no stock of wool, and arrivals few; the new clip is all sold. Prices firm. Sheepskins in good demand, and mataderos sold at 40. In spite of the rise in gold, we have confidence in the power of the Provincial Bank to prevent any serious advance in the premium, by means of exchange, the lever by which paper money will be gradually raised in value. The past year's business has left a large balance of trade in favour of this country, but just now political fears override everything, and every one wishes to hold gold. This state of things will soon settle itself by the sale of the gold, which will not be wanted to take exchange, as the Bank draws on better terms for paper, and as all the home trade is in paper money, none will look for gold except those who believe in civil war and an enormous advance in the premium. However, there is hardly a merchant in the city who believes civil war possible. It is already well known how an arrangement is to be arrived at, and this will be after apparent discussion accepted at the last moment. Meanwhile, merchants can get exchange for paper on advantageous terms, and the timid ones will have to sell their gold at a loss when the end comes. The Governor's message was the event of the fortnight. Several mercantile houses have offered the Provincial Government the $600,000 recently voted by the Chambers for arms, so there will be no need to apply to the Bank. It is, however our hope and belief that all will end quietly. The memoria of the Provincial Finance Minister, Sr Balbin, has attracted much attention and is a striking proof of the zeal and ability with which he discharges the duties of his high post."

Mr Hermann Altgelt, under date of May 7th 1880, publishes a wheat and cereal circular which gives as follows—

"The arrivals of wheat &c. during the last week were:—

	Wheat. Kgs.	Flour. Kgs.	Maize Kgs.
By Rivers	200,014	126,648	—
West. Railway	154,807	24,170	323,427
South. Railway	57,960	—	169,710
Montevideo	7,760	—	—
Total	419,681	150,818	493,137

"Wheat—Every day we note a fresh rise in all cereals except Candial; and a deficit is even threatened in the last article by the increasing consumption. The arrivals from Rosario are scanty, and it must be remarked that Cordoba is sending considerable quantities of wheat from that port. This wheat is generally good, rather white, and although not so good as that of Santa Fe, finds ready purchasers. To-day three vessels arrived with wheat from Montevideo, and the cargo of one is included in our table. In Chile a fresh rise in prices is announced. Flour has risen again, and is firm with a still more upward tendency. Maize is falling. Alfalfa and tobacco are firm."

Mr Durand in his important circular for the mail gives the following—

"The sudden fall in wools telegraphed on the 4th has spread a great calm over the market. The prices which were continually rising have fallen and a bad impression reigns among buyers. The following are the quotations:—

Superior qualities, 150-165 per ar.
Good..... 125-150
Average and defec. 95-125

The arrival of sheepskins is very limited. Small sales at $90 and $183. Last year these prices averaged $75-105. Alarming news from the camp announce a drought, and an epidemic is threatened in both cattle and sheep. The arrivals of the fortnight are estimated at 90,000 arrobes; sales 60,000 arrs; and stock in the market 40,000 arrs. The total arrivals of this season are 5,870,000 arrs, total sales 5,830,000 arrs, against 4,980,000 arrs. arrivals, 4,500,000 arrs. sales, and 480,000 arrs. stock this time last year."

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 20th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I havcat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Rodnent Hall, Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."
